

KTL Charter School
Invites you to our first annual:
Family Literacy Lunch

- When: Monday, October 19, 2009
12:30-2:30 (Please bring your own lunch)
- Where: KTL Charter School
- Why: Because Writing Matters. Let us help you help your children become confident, skilled writers, in and beyond school.
- What: Writing thank you letters to people who serve us in our community, our state, and our country.
- Who: Please share with us the names and addresses of friends and family currently serving as community helpers and servers in our local community AND overseas in the military or missions by October 12. Tell us what they are doing as we want to show our appreciation to these wonderful people.
- RSVP: There will be limited space so save your spot by October 5. Contact Annette Steele with your reservation either by email: ktlasteele@yahoo.com or leave a message at the school 634-6467.
- Details: All writing supplies will be provided, although you can bring your own stationery and envelopes.

The National Writing Project
Proclaims October 20, 2009 as the National Day on Writing